GOVERN ECONOMIC AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE CENTER

Alissa Kole is a senior advisor to government and private sector leaders, leveraging her extensive experience as an internationally recognised expert in economic and corporate governance.

She is the Founder and Director of GOVERN Center, awarded for its work on the design of custom governance, risk and compliance regulations and frameworks.

GOVERN is an internationally recognised and trusted advisory boutique and think tank, innovating boundaries of governance and sustainability know-how and shaping the direction of key industry debates.

Under her leadership, Govern has flourished to be a recognized provider of tailored advisory solutions to governments, investors, and leading corporations.

For the past 15 years, Ms. Kole has been supporting policymakers, boards, and senior executives address challenges related to private and state-owned governance, financial market development and innovation, institution building, and regulatory reform.

Prior to founding GOVERN, Ms. Kole launched and led the OECD regional project in the Middle East and North Africa for a decade, in particular developing a unique program on governance in the region. She has been closely involved in the development of national corporate governance, capital market, and state ownership laws and regulations.

She currently counsels government and private sector leaders in Europe, Africa and the Middle East on regulatory reform issues, international governance rankings and institution building initiatives, supporting major clients such as the Public Investment Fund, Agence Française de Développment, the London Stock Exchange and the G20.

Ms. Kole is a prolific author, including books and articles on corporate governance, capital market development, sovereign governance, and related topics. She is a sought-after commentator with public appearances as a TED speaker and articles in the Financial Times, the Wall Street Journal, the Harvard Business Review, Bloomberg, and other recognized media. She hosts Governance Dialogues, a unique online corporate governance channel.

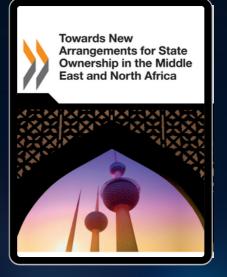

She holds a Business Administration degree from York University, a Masters degree in Political Economy from the London School of Economics, and professional certificates from Yale. Ms. Kole has recently served as a Fellow at the London School of Economics Middle East Center and acts as a member of several international advisory boards and commissions.

She was named one of the Top 100 Leaders in Europe and the Middle East by the Centre for Sustainability and Excellence and was recognized by Columbia Law School as the Rising Star of Corporate Governance. Ms. Kole is fluent in English, French, Russian, Italian and has notions of Arabic, Ukrainian and Portuguese.

Dataget en Global Digital Finance Governance Technical Paper 2.1 BigFintechs and the U	Inited Nations
Sustainable Developm role of corporate gove	nent Goals: the
The findings of the Dialogue on Global Digital Finance Governance are packaged into three thematic areas:	Executive summary
Theme 1 Biglineachs and their impacts on sustainable development Tophysion (1) Explanads and their impacts on sustainable development	This paper discusses corporate governance of global digital finance platforms (Big/Intendia) in relation to their societal impacts and effects on broader United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDOs), with a specific focus on innovative voluntary mechanisms, given that the industry is currently not regulated by particular sector- specific standards.
Schnich Repr 118 Big/Intexts and her impacts on macrosconner policies Technical Paper 12 Dipati currencies and CEDC impacts on least developed countries Theme 2	Our findings suggest that corporate governance increations could play and in addressing certain big/finise (impacts, espocial) in the adverse of a broader integration of the adverse adverse and the adverse of a adverse their implementation surface, metallowers adverse their projects on the attimum of the SOGs. However, these metallowers are incostly being advanced by individual plementations are mostly being advanced by individual plementations are mostly being advanced by individual plementations and incost building advanced by individual plementations and incost building advanced by individual plementations and incost building advanced by individual plementations and an end building of the sectors adverse the sectors advanced by individual plementations of the SOGs.
Corporate governance innovations • Technical Paper 2.1 Big/intechs and the UN SDGs: the role of corporate governance innovations	stakeholders impacted by their externalities, particularly in developing economies.
E Theme 3	These largely experimental measures point to a number of emerging examples for the BigFintech sector to consider to address a range of concerns about its social, competition, fiscal, environmental and other impacts.
BigRintelba and international government, policymaking and the SDOs • Technical Paper 31 Philymmäers, BigRintechs and the United Harizon Scutainable Development Coals • Technical Paper 31 2 BigRintechs and international governments, policymaking and the UH Sustanable	Index, these experimental measures point to interesting solutions that may provide new laws for Big/Indexts to address existing concerns and support adviewement of the EDGs, while regulators and policymakers adjust to digitization and sustainability-related risks.

EE

Bloomberg

Subscribe

Business | Deals

Abu Dhabi Turns to $229 Billion Wealth Fund to Rescue NMC

- Mubadala held early talks for stake in U.A.E. healthcare firm
- Emirate is using its sovereign fund to support key companies

VIDEOS

WATCH GOVERNANCE DIALOGUES ON YOUTUBE

WATCH TEDX TALK ON

Telephone

+33 6 67 18 40 24

+39 32 96 52 85 93

FOLLOW ME ON LINKEDIN Email alissa.kole@govern.center

Assistant inquiries@govern.center Website www.govern.center

